Icy Roads Bring Many Accidents During the Week

More Than Dozen Automobile Accidents Reported In County

The season's first real winter weather, which brought a snowfall of several inches last week and has added to the first blanket almost every day since, has resulted in a good many crashes on the roads, which otherwise would have been avoided. The weather, which has provided either a wet snow or light freezing rain at some time every day has kept the roads in a slippery condition.

About twelve accidents have been reported with many of them not serious, and some odd to extreme, as in the case of the automobile of Mrs. William Blaine of Grayslake, Mrs. Blaine had driven to Long Lake to attend a Home Bureau meeting. Upon coming out of the building to where her car was parked she was surprised to find it gone. After some search, it was found on the ice of the channel, where it had slipped from the shoulder of the roadway. Although there were numerous trees between the channel and the road the car had missed all of them, and all that was necessary was to obtain the service of a tow truck to pull the car to the road.

Mrs. Lester Turnpugh of Lake Villa was not so lucky when the brakes failed on her car at the intersection of Deep Lake road and route 173 last Monday morning. Mrs. Turnpugh, who was accompanied by three small children, approached the stop sign at route 173 traveling north and when the brakes failed to hold, crossed the road in front of a car driven by W. B. Harrison of Antioch, the cars collided and the Harrison car was spun around on the highway.

Two of the three small Turnpugh boys, aged 1, 2½ and three were badly cut and bruised, the smallest being uninjured. They were picked up immediately at the scene, and brought to Antioch, where they received treatment by Dr. D. N. Deering.

Matthew Burghardt, Kenosha, escaped serious injury Tuesday morning, when his car struck a fence post on route 173 east of route 45. The post had evidently been lost from a truck and when Burghardt's car struck it it was hurled into the air, striking the hood of the car and coming through the windshield. Only slight cuts were suffered and the car was able to continue under its own power after being towed from the ditch.

A Midwest Transfer truck was struck by a car Monday on route 173 near Channel lake, after the truck had jackknifed on a curve. No serious damage was done to either vehicle.

Mrs. Clara Kurszynski of Lake Villa, was seriously injured in an accident which occurred on Grand Avenue last Monday. The car was driven by Mrs. Josephine Van Stroesser, also of Lake Villa, and overturned after having gotten out of control and going into the ditch.

1949 Lake County Fair Will Be Held In Libertyville

Permission to hold the 1949 Lake County fair at Libertyville was granted by the Libertyville village board last week. The dates are not yet set, but the village board action paved the way for the schedule, as the fair board was left to select its own dates.

The fair had a reported attendance of 30,000 last year and if plans of the fair association, mature, it is possible that the fair will run for six days instead of the usual three, and that a horse show and other attractions will be added.

Jones became interested in this field while in the Navy Air Corps during World War II. The club invites guest speakers, who speak on pertinent subjects such as wind-tunnel turbulence, etc. They also show movies illustrating the particular lectures.

Legion Cagers Top Genoa City Thurs.

The Legion basketball teams took two games from Genoa City, Wis., last Thursday at Genoa. The games were jam packed with excitement, with the outcome of each game in doubt until the final whistle.

In the first game the "B" squad held its own with the Genoa team all the way with the score at the final whistle at 21, necessitating an overtime period. During the overtime Antioch managed to throw in two buckets, winning the game 25 to 21. Sammy Klass, manager of the teams, starred for the "B" team hitting the hoop for three field goals and three free throws, runner up in the scoring was K. Madsen with three field goals and one free toss. B. Shank tossed in three goals from the floor.

The second stanza was almost a duplicate of the first game with Antioch trailing almost the entire game, getting the range only in the final minutes of play to surge ahead for a 42-39 win.

Scoring for the "A" squad was led by D. Gutzloff, who scored a total of 23 points on nine field goals and five free throws. J. Fields and J. Effinger each accounted for four points with two goals each.

Split with Barrington. Dick Gutzloff led the scoring in an easy 22-34 victory last Monday evening in Antioch gymnasium against Barrington. The "A" squad was never in trouble and although defensive play by both teams made a rather dull game of it, the locals were content to score a win over the highly-rated Barrington team.

In the curtain raiser, which featured the two "B" squads, the locals were outclassed, and outpointed in all four quarters to lose by a 29-18 score. B. Shank was lead scorer for Antioch with nine points.

To Play Wauconda

Word was received by friends of the death of Mrs. John Ludlow, a resident of Chicago, on January 23. Her death was due to a heart attack, although she had been ill for some time.

Mrs. Ludlow was a summer resident for many years, the last few years having spent her summers at Selter's subdivision on Grass Lake.

She was born in Sommersetshire, England, on September 10, 1867, and was brought to this country and Antioch at the age of one month. All her life was spent here.

She was a member of the Royal Neighbor lodge 459, and would have had a record of membership for fifty years, this coming March. She was also a member of the National Daughters of the G. A. R.

Her husband, Charles E. Kelly, died on January 29, 1924. He was engaged in farming. Surviving are a sister, Mrs. Nellie Ray and a brother, Fred Brown, both of Waukegan.

Ice Fishing Is Much Improved During The Week

Very good fishing through the ice of the local lakes has been reported this week, with many of the disciples of Isaac Walton, laying the improvement to the layer of snow which has covered the ice the past few days. Some good sized bass and northern pike have been caught with one pike reported to have been 17 pounds. A good many three and four pound black bass have been brought in.

Bait for the panfish, bluegills and crappies, have been proven to be weed worms, meal worms, cedar bugs, corn borers, grubs or flies of different colors, with a yellow the greatest favorite. Most of the bass and pickerel were caught on live minnows.

Several arrests for violation of conservation department regulations have been made, some of which were due to the fishermen not having the proper information about the laws. The ruling which limits a fisherman to two lines in the water at any one time has been the cause of some arrests, the fishermen believing that ice fishing was exempt from the rule. Only two lines are allowed, whether they be tip-ups or hand lines.

March of Dimes Slow to Start; To End Jan. 31

Three Match Games at Local Alley; Theatres to Help

Postmaster Roy I. Kufalk, local chairman for the March of Dimes drive of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, said today that contributions for the drive were slow in starting, but that this is the usual course of events, and that he felt sure that residents of the community would put the drive "over the top" as in previous years.

Plans for the drive include a special night arranged for by Proprietor Carl Gibson of the Antioch Recreation, which will feature three special match games for the benefit of the drive. Some of the county's top bowlers, both men and women will participate, and those interested in bowling will undoubtedly take advantage of this event. No admission charge will be made, but a collection will be taken up to aid the drive.

Also in line with swelling the total is the running of special trailers at both the Antioch and Lakes theatres. A collection will be taken up by members of the local boy scout troops. The trailer will be shown at the Lakes on Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings and at the Antioch on Saturday and Sunday only.

During the past three years Antioch township has had ten cases of the dread disease and the foundation has been of much aid to those afflicted. In 1946 nine cases were reported and the Foundation supplied funds for the care of the children stricken to the amount of $1,493.12. In 1947, although no cases were reported, an expenditure of $210 was made in Antioch township. During 1948 one case was reported and $332.51 was spent for treatment.

Total amount of money spent in Lake county during the past three years is in excess of $56,000 incidental to the care of 107 victims of the disease. The totals by years read: 1946—54 cases, $19,998.07; 1947—16 cases, $23,480.25; 1948—34 cases, $13,080.57.

The policy of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis is "that no victim of Polio shall go without the best of care, regardless of race, creed or color." This very worthy objective deserves the help of every citizen for without the support of the great mass of people, the work cannot be carried on.

Kenosha Fair Ass'n. To Receive $20,000

Members of the Kenosha County Fair association at their annual meeting spent considerable time discussing how to spend an appropriation of $20,000 made by the Kenosha county board of supervisors for improvement of the fair grounds.

The executive committee presented informally six recommendations for developing the fair. Its suggestions, however, opened a discussion revolving around construction of a midge track, construction of permanent buildings, and the purchase of 85 acres of land adjoining the present grounds.

Recommendations of the executive board included: tearing down of all buildings on the grounds except a large home; construction of a legal fence around the entire fair grounds except for the parking lot; remodeling of the home to provide rest rooms and caretaker quarters; construction of one, two, three or four buildings to house exhibits; construction of a driveway connecting the parking lot to the street; and filling of an area near the creek to provide additional space.

The board of directors, which met after the annual meeting, decided to postpone election of new officers until a later date. Elected to the board of directors were: Fred A. Baysinger, Salem; Mrs. Otto Schenning, Fox River; George Molinaro, Kenosha; Chester Knight, Wilmet; and M. M. Schnurr, Wilmet.

Economic Highlights

There was nothing that was unexpected and little that was new in the President's State of the Union message. He had covered practically all of his points before, during, and after the campaign. Yet the speech came as something of a shock to a good many people—mainly for the reason that this marked the first time that the entire Truman program was summed up in capsule form. The message ran to only 3,500 words or so—but it covered an enormous amount of territory.

Furthermore, this speech, along with other formal and informal statements made by the President since his election, takes the wind out of the sails of those who believed that many of the things he said during the campaign were for vote-getting purposes only, and he didn't really mean them. Regardless of what one may think of the program, that belief did the President an injustice. Even his political opponents are convinced that he means exactly what he says. Thus, so far as he is able, he will put into full effect every campaign promise he made.

It is clear that the Truman "Fair Deal" program out does the "New Deal" in almost every particular. It has its roots in principles which were initially laid down by Franklin Roosevelt. But it goes a great deal farther—and, if it is adopted in large part by Congress, it will have a far greater influence on American life and custom, and also be immeasurably more costly. That is an obvious fact, whether one likes the program or not.

It is also obvious that there are points of striking similarity between Mr. Truman's proposed major policies and those of England's socialist Labor Government. A vastly expanded social security program is one of these points. So is the development of government power projects. So is compulsory government medical insurance. So is government housing. And so is the proposal that government go into the business of producing basic materials in short supply, such as steel, if private enterprise does not meet a quota which the Administration considers satisfactory.

Bills which would make most of Mr. Truman's proposals laws, are now in the hopper of Congress. But the going will not be easy by any means. The Democratic Party has a wide majority in both branches; the Truman administration has not. The Democratic chairmen of some of the most important committees belong to the conservative wing of the party. The Senators and Representatives from the South are, for the most part, out of sympathy with a majority of their constituents. The Republicans are opposed to most of it. So in all probability, the President will have to be satisfied with half a loaf. He will get modified versions of most of what he is asking for.

For example, Congress does not view with enthusiasm that additional $4,000,000,000 be raised by new taxes, to be levied mainly on business. Never in history has our economy been so geared to high employment and maximum industrial production. Even a moderate depression would have devastating effects on government revenues, and on our ability to finance European aid, a huge defense program, and similar costly measures. It is clearly in the interest of the government itself to keep the business world in as high a state of confidence as possible. As many economists have been pointing out, in testimony before government agencies, profits are nowhere near as great as mere dollar figures may indicate when present day costs of maintaining and expanding industry are taken into consideration. So, if more taxes are levied, it is very likely that the individual, as well as business, will have to bear a part of the burden.

In any event, it should be realized, on both sides of the fence, that the Truman program envisions great and fundamental changes in American life. It is a program which sanctions a more powerful centralized government than we have ever accepted in peacetime—and which must burden in one way or another the daily existence of everyone. It seems certain that Congress will do a great deal of hard thinking before it gives approval to any sizable part of it.

The Halcyon group held their regular monthly meeting Thursday evening, January 20, at the church basement with 18 members present. The group will present a play, "The Campbells are Coming" by Jay Tobias, in March.

West Indian Mahogany
A major cabinet wood in England and America until approximately 1775, West Indian mahogany, declined in use as supplies from Jamaica then Santo Domingo and finally Cuba, became scarce. Until World War II, minor supplies were available from Cuba. War restrictions stopped its importation and since the war, an export embargo has kept supplies from coming to this country. It is the heaviest and hardest of the mahoganies and is the favorite of the old-time cabinetmaker for his hand made furniture.

Queen's Sting
Queen bee has a longer sting than the worker, but rarely uses it except in combat or in killing other queens. Instances of a bee-keeper being stung by a queen are extremely rare. The queen does not lose her sting in killing another queen.

Vacuum Cleaner Bag
Dust bag on your vacuum-cleaner should be brushed inside and out, but never washed. Laundering may remove the finish that makes the bag dust-proof.

LIVESTOCK HEALTH ODDITIES

Figuring Cost of Clothes
The number of outfits a girl owns has little to do with the usefulness of her wardrobe. The suitability of her clothes is more important than the number. And the clothes which cost the most are not the clothes made of the finest materials. They are the clothes which hang in the closet, unworn. The actual cost of any outfit is the cost in dollars and cents, divided by the number of times you wear the outfit.

Shopping Tip
When purchasing a winter coat it is wise to remember the fact that the best linings are usually slippery so that the coat will go on and off easily; firm so the lining won't pull at the seams; color-fast; pre-shrunk; and of a material that won't wrinkle or stain.

Measuring Lumber
To convert board feet to lineal feet, multiply board feet by 12 and divide in turn by thickness and width.

Movement of Birds
It has been claimed that the Persians and Arabs compiled portions of their calendar according to the regular movement of the birds, and the only mysterious part of this natural phenomenon to them was the destination of the flyers. During the earliest years of the Christian era, writers believed that swallows hibernated in hollow trees in the winter.

Starting Car on Ice
When starting the car on an icy pavement, do not use first gear at all—but start in second or high—engaging the clutch slowly. Go easy on the acceleration pedal to avoid racing the engine. This allows the tires to grip the ice better because the wheels have less tendency to spin.

PRINTED here are current prices on Buick cars—delivered locally—complete and ready to run.

We invite you to compare them, dollar for dollar—with particular eye to what the price includes.

Every Buick price here includes such present-day "musts" as an underseat heater, a fine-toned radio, back-up lights built into the car rather than hung on the bumper, windshield washers installed at the factory.

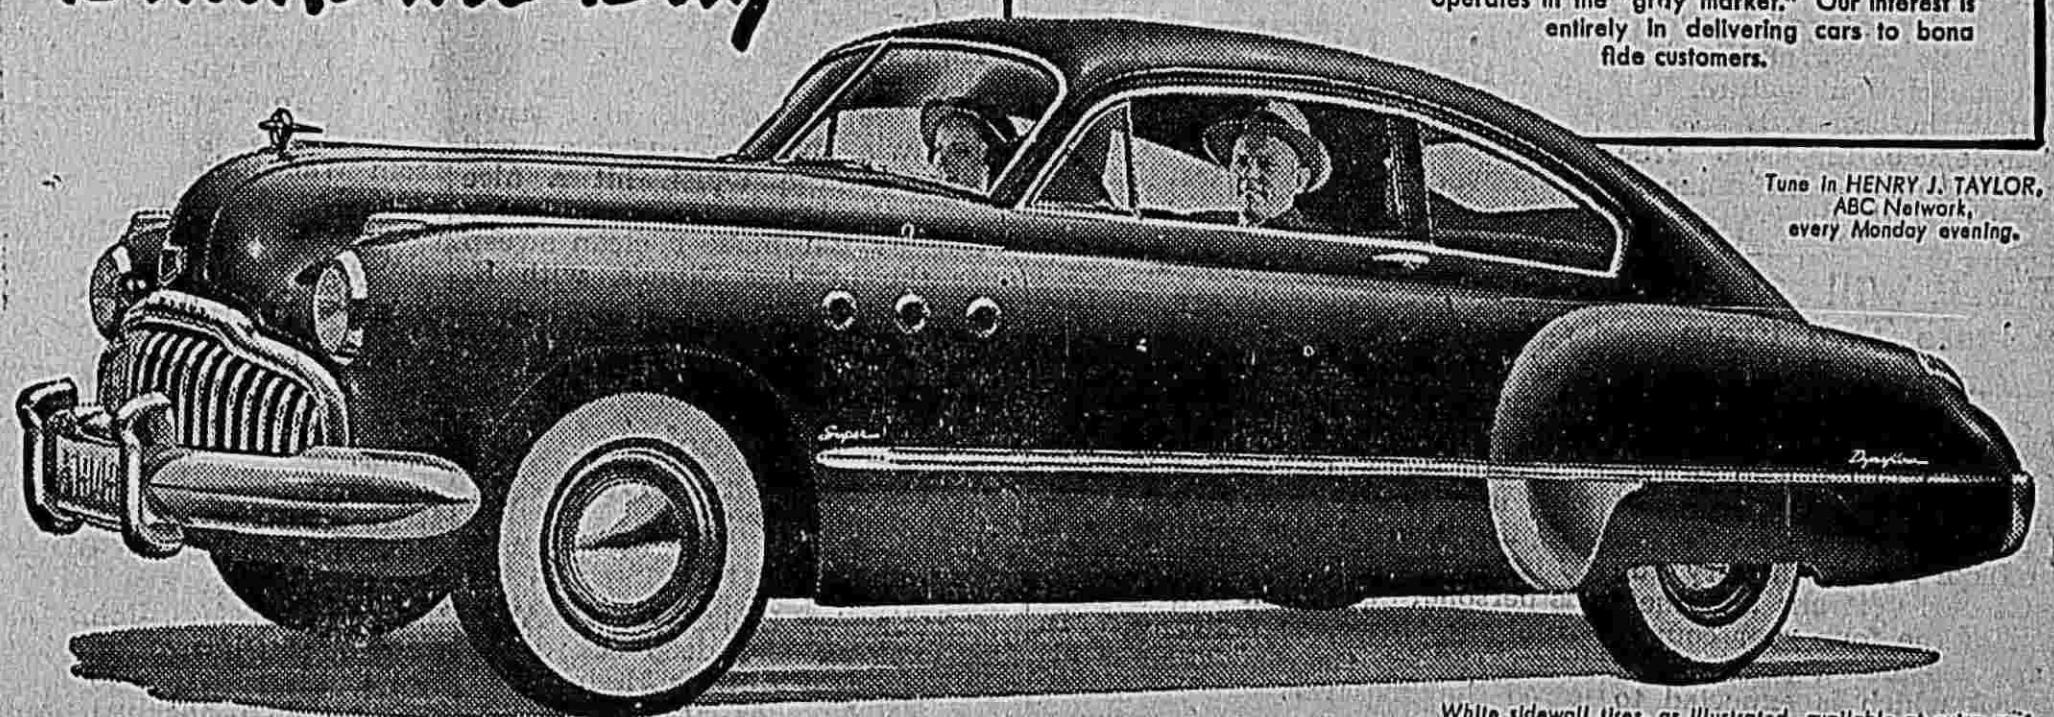

ROADMASTER prices include Dynaflo Drive, that super-smooth transmission available only on Buicks.

Every price includes super-soft tires—plus the extra comfort of the widest rims in the industry. Every price includes Fireball valve-in-head power—plus new self-setting valve lifters.

So your dollars buy a matchless combination of ride and room and performance, of style—and size—and stepped-up visibility. And you get the four-square deal described in the panel.

So go ahead and shop the cars. Check the prices. Check what's in them. Check the deal you get. You'll end up at a Buick dealer, getting your order in!

UNWILLING YAQUIS

Mexico Aids Her Indians

CIUDAD OBREGON, SONORA, MEXICO.—A long-range plan to change warring Yaqui Indians into peaceful farmers is patiently being pursued by the Mexican government regardless of widespread doubt and skepticism.

The Yaqui is not willing to forget his persecutions by Spanish conquerors or Mexican agents.

He feels all the land rightfully belongs to him and thinks he has exchanged a blanket for a small handkerchief in accepting two and a half square miles of property for each of his nine pueblos and additional farming lands.

Mexicans feel too much land has been given the Indians and that the amount of money being spent on them is excessive.

"The Indians are not good farmers," they say.

In the meantime, the Mexican government, copying the United States Indian Service plans, is constructing a huge canal to irrigate the Yaqui land grants in an effort to convert the warriors into farmers.

Butchery Has Stopped
No longer do the Yaquis sweep out of their Bacatete Mountains stronghold to burn trains, butcher passengers and ranchers and ravage the countryside.

Even so, there is constant, if slight, fear of another Yaqui outbreak.

While Southern Pacific of Mexico trains now travel without soldiers, two cavalry posts at Esperanza and Bicom are ready to protect citizens.

"There is not a family in this area but has suffered at the hands of the Yaqui," L. M. Byerly, American farm machinery merchant, explains.

"This valley today is in exactly the same position Arizona found itself in the 1880's, says Sidney M. Morrison, manager of the Richardson Construction Co. which opened the valley's vast irrigation system.

Our valley has the Yaqui, Arizona had the Apache," he continues. "There is the constant fear not only of another Yaqui outbreak, but of further expropriation of lands under the agrarian system.

Farm Training.
"Some progress is being made among the Yaqui in training them to become able farmers, but it seems slow by American standards."

Mexicans themselves feel their government has been wasteful in giving the Yaqui tribe more than 12 million acres of land which extend to the Gulf of California.

A large portion of this is irrigable and it is through this that the Utah Construction Co. has been building a new canal over 30 kilometers long.

Eventually water will be fed into the canal system solely for Yaqui Indian use.

But the Yaqui continues to call the Mexican "yori," or enemy. Generally they dislike laws, soldiers, government agents and Americans.

They remember the 1903 massacre of thousands of Yaqui and the trainloads who were shipped like slaves to work in Yucatan.

Light From Fireflies
Captured fireflies provide the Weaver bird with a well lighted nest in India, according to legends there.

4-H Club Idea.
"Learning by doing" is the basis of the 4-H club program, which is now being followed by nearly two million young Americans.

Poultry Fact
Poultry in good pasture eat about 10 per cent less mash and grain than they do when they are penned up.

Sierra Nevadas
Sierra Nevada range of eastern California holds about a dozen peaks rising above 14,000 feet.

'Virginia' Peanuts
More "Virginia" peanuts and more "Virginia" tobacco are grown in North Carolina than in any other state.

Pressure Cooker
Avoid stale odors in the pressure cooker and other cooking utensils by leaving covers slightly open when the utensil is not in use.

Electric Auto Starter
Clyde J. Coleman was granted a patent in 1903 on an automobile electric self-starter.

Unused Land
It is estimated that 1,300,000,000 acres of unused land in the world can be developed for crop production.

First Agricultural College
World's first agricultural college was founded at Hohenheim, Germany, in 1818.

Workmen were busy on Tuesday and Wednesday removing the pipe organ from the Antioch Methodist church. The organ was installed 41 years ago, six years after the completion of the present structure. It is being shipped to Chicago where parts of it will be reclaimed.

The new contract for the Wurlitzer Electronic Organ was signed by representatives of the Church the first part of the week. Delivery of the new organ has been guaranteed next week. Meanwhile members of the Board of Trustees were planning to meet this week for redecoration of the area made vacant by the removal of the organ. Part of the space will be occupied by the expanding choir which will sing this Sunday with a piano accompaniment.

ANTOINETTE D'AMBROSE CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Antoinette D'Ambrose, of Channel Lake was hostess to her playmates on her tenth birthday anniversary, January 24. Delicious refreshments were served to Mary Atwood, Joanne Haak, Marie Freitag, Connie and Kenneth Kania, Louise Protalski, Patricia and Danet Stratton, Barbara and Eric Hohnwald, Margie and Albert Reckers, Jackie Woolner, Dorothy Shannon, Robert Wolter and Glen Sieschlag. Games and dancing made the party a complete success. Luncheon was also served by her mother, Mrs. Celia D'Ambrose, to Kate Hynek, Mildred Siedschlag, Marge Reckers, Mary Shannon and Marge Odewald and the oldsters seemed to enjoy the party more than the youngsters.

BAHA'I FIRESIDE

"By Their Fruits Ye Shall Know Them" will be subject for discussion at the Baha'i Fireside meeting, Friday evening, January 28th, at 8:30. These meetings are held regularly each week at the A. F. Mathisen home on highway "V" in Bristol Township.

The Baha'i religion is a call to greater understanding, purer consecration, acceptance of the oneness of mankind, steadfast heroism in maintaining the principles of world unity until they become the laws and customs of a regenerated world. This is the reality of the spiritual life in service to the world religion revealed by the Prophet of a new Dispensation. The task is titanic, but the goal is divinely ordained. Unfaith remains imprisoned in the problem, while faith draws power from a higher realm.

Search for Mahogany

There are no mahogany forests. Typically, the trees are scattered through the jungle here and there. An average of two trees to the acre is considered a very good stand. At first only the trees on the river banks were cut, and transportation was not a serious problem. These trees have long since gone so the hunt for mahogany and its logging have been one long battle with the trackless tropical jungle.

Benedict Arnold

In 1780 Benedict Arnold's plot to betray West Point was disclosed with the capture of Major Andre, who was hanged. Arnold escaped to the British lines.

Your Income Tax . . . .

persons filing separate returns are still limited to a maximum of $500.

Persons with adjusted gross income of less than $5,000.00 must, if they do not choose to itemize their actual deductions, determine their tax from the tax table on page 4 of Form 1040, which in each case includes an allowance for deductions of 10% of the adjusted gross income.

Persons with adjusted gross incomes of $5,000.00 or more may, if they choose, claim the standard deduction in lieu of their actual deductions which is computed as follows:

On the return of a single person 10% of the adjusted gross income or $1,000.00 whichever is smaller, or the joint return of a married couple, 10% of the adjusted gross income or $1,000.00 whichever is smaller or separate return of a married person, $500.00 and no more.

The question of whether or not a taxpayer should claim the standard deduction is dependent on the amount of his personal deductions. If such deductions exceed 10% of his adjusted gross income it would be advantageous to claim the actual deductions.

If actual deductions were less than standard deductions it usually would be advantageous to claim standard deductions. However, it should be borne in mind that the use of the standard deduction in addition to eliminating deductions such as contributions, interest, taxes, etc., also eliminates the following credits:

1. 3% for a partially tax exempt interest from Government obligations.

2. Tax paid to foreign country or a U. S. possession.

3. Income tax paid at source on tax-free covenant bonds.

Husbands and wives filing separate returns must use the same method of tax computation. If one spouse chooses to itemize actual personal deductions, the other spouse is bound by that election and may not use the standard deduction.

Under the new law it will usually be to the advantage of married couples to file jointly. In no case could their standard deductions be greater on separate returns than on a joint return.

Deer's Point System

Usual method of gauging a deer's point system is thus: A buck's tines or point grow larger and more numerous each successive year until there are twelve. At this time the buck is usually about five years of age. There are abnormal situations where the number of points vary, but usually in an average healthy buck the above is true.

Princess Sets Style

A vogue for filigree spray brooches is being stimulated by Princess Elizabeth, according to leading London jewelers. They trace the style trend back to the gift of a floral spray of diamonds and rubies, notable for its filigree design, which the jewelry industry presented to the princess when she was married to Lieut. Philip Mountbatten, Duke of Edinburgh.

Smoking Tobacco Output

Manufacture of smoking tobacco in 1947 is estimated at 105 million pounds, almost the same as the 108 million pounds produced in 1946.

Finish for Collars

In home sewing, it's a good idea to finish the bottoms of collars with thin, soft bias binding, so that they will not be bulky or scratchy under the neck of dresses.

A Galloping Gentle

Modern gentle known to steelmen as the continuous rolling mill usually picks up slabs of steel at a speed of four and a half miles an hour. Less than two minutes later it reels them off in the form of ribbons at 20 to 25 miles an hour. Higher speeds are frequently attained, however, and the type of steel sheet that ends up as tin cans has been known to travel a mile a minute.

Fact

and Scripture

Seeing an oasis in the midst of a desert very often is merely a mirage. . . . We also find all that glitters is not gold. Buoyant hopes all too often collapse and end in disappointment. All the world can offer is but vanity. For the substantial and enduring essence of life we must look higher.

The real Church of God stands as a lighthouse in this troubled world. It reflects a living beam of hope.

"The earth mourneth and fadeth away, the world languisheth and fadeth away, the haughty people of the earth do languish."

"The earth also is defiled under the inhabitants thereof; because they have transgressed the laws, changed the ordinance, broken the everlasting covenant." Isa. 24:4,5.

"Look unto me and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else." Isa. 45:22.

A Bright Idea... a Right Idea...

POULTRY HOUSE LIGHTING

Keeps 'em Shelling Out!

By GIVING their flocks a chance to eat and drink for 13 or 14 hours a day with poultry house lighting, poultrymen are keeping their layers working overtime on the egg production line. Keeping hens busy eating and drinking keeps production at a peak when prices are highest. Just a few small bulbs and an automatic time switch are all that's needed to get the birds into high production in their pullet (or first) year... the year when hens ordinarily lay their maximum number of eggs.

Now is the time to switch to more eggs, greater profits with poultry house lighting!

Consult one of our Ag Engineers for details
—he'll be glad to help you.

PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY OF NORTHERN ILLINOIS

Hessian Fly Again
Wheat jointworm, ranking next to Hessian fly as causing heavy losses to the wheat crop, was present in many fields this past season. The areas most heavily infested were southern Illinois, central and southern Indiana, southwestern Ohio, Kentucky, and several localities in Missouri. The department of agriculture is warning farmers to make use of known control measures to avoid severe and widespread infestations in 1949.

Shortest Presidential Term
William Henry Harrison was the first President to die in office. According to the World Book encyclopedia, he was also the first member of the Whig party to be elected. Harrison's term was the shortest in American history—only thirty days.

Keeping Cut Flowers
Add a little bleach containing chlorine to the water in which cut flowers are placed to keep down odor from decaying stems and leaves.

Glaucoma and Blindness
Glaucoma, the cause of which is still unknown, is responsible for about 12 per cent, or 30,000 cases, of the 250,000 cases of total blindness in the United States.

Atomic scientists tell us that the atom will be harnessed for use by the railroads. This may not be-
